JFK assassination hearing set — Reversing its previous action, the House Rules Committee has voted to hold a hearing on a proposal by Rep. Thomas Downing, D-Va., for a special committee to reinvestigate the assassination of John F. Kennedy. The committee decided to take testimony tomorrow from members of Congress who want the investigation reopened. The vote was the result of pleas from Downing and others who say enough questions have been raised about the accuracy of the Warren Commission study to warrant reopening the investigation. Two weeks ago, the committee decided against granting him a hearing.
